School Board discusses raises for non-certified employees

BY LIZ HAAS

The Hancock County School Board discussed giving an additional 3 percent raise to non-certified employees in a Monday meeting.

"We need to look at using part of the 1993 carry over balance of $1,400,000 for these non-certified raises," said board president Lynette Necaise.

Bourgeois said, "That money cannot be used for that. When we gave the 3 percent raises, we gave within the means that the district could afford."

"Mrs. Bourgeois where are the figures that we asked to have by this board meeting on the cost of giving additional 3 percent raises to non-certified teachers? Based on those figures, we can make a decision if we could get the money for the raises," said board member Kay Sones.

Bourgeois did not have the information for the board.

Necaise said, "Mrs. Bourgeois I am not trying to do your job. I am not the superintendent, but when I ask for information to do my job, I expect to get it. This is the information we need to do our job as the school board."

Necaise said, "We would like to request again by the next meeting to have the amount it would cost to give an additional three percent raise to non-certified employees and how much money is in special programs so we can amend those budgets."

Bourgeois said, "The board is constantly asking for information and my office time is spent trying to get the information for you so much that it makes it difficult for me to do other things."

Board attorney Steve Benvenutti said, "The law says that the board has to make the decisions, and they are entitled to get any information that they need, so you need to provide them with the information to do their job."

The board will make a decision on the issue at the first board meeting in September.

Bourgeois gave a report on the number of students to date in each of the schools. They are: 1,282 students in Hancock High School, 598 in Gulfview Elementary, 165 in Charles B. Murphy Elementary, 866 in Hancock North Central

Parking problems

Bay St. Louis downtown businesses complain to officials

BY LIZ HAAS

Bay St. Louis City Councilmen met with downtown business owners Thursday to discuss solutions to the parking problems in the downtown business area.

PROBLEM

"We have increased traffic in the area and we've got to have more parking," said Jerry Fisher, owner of the Dock of the Bay.

He said, "We're losing revenues because people are not coming to the downtown area because they can't find parking."

Fisher said some congestion is caused by suppliers making deliveries during high traffic hours, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and holding up traffic.

"I'm trying to get my suppliers to come at other times," he said.

Clerk of Council Mike Cuevas said 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. is not the only peak time, also around 3 p.m. when students are getting out of school.

The Sandbox owner Donald Saucier said, "From a safety standpoint, during the lunch hour, sooner or later someone's going to get hurt because it's bumper-to-bumper traffic."

He said the street is so narrow plan for downtown. The traffic is increasing, and it's our responsibility to make the downtown area something we can be proud of," said Fisher.

He suggested for downtown business owners and employees to park elsewhere, leaving space for customers.

"...sooner or later someone's going to get hurt because it's bumper to bumper traffic."

row with cars parked on both sides that there is barely any room left for cars to pass.

Fisher said, "I bet there's been a hundred mirrors lost in that area."

SOLUTIONS

Councilman James Rutherford said, "We need a plan. We don't need to just go in there and do a few little changes."

"I want to see you get with a

"We have got to widen that area so cars can pass and add some more parking to keep the downtown business area alive. What's a business without a place for customers?" said Fisher.

Councilman Charlie Scianna said, "The number one problem, which has been the same prob-

Waveland eyes traffic hazard at McLaurin/Old Spanish Trail

BY LIZ HAAS

Waveland Police Chief Jimmy Varnell told aldermen Wednesday that 25 of the 29 accidents at McLaurin and Old Spanish Trail since 1988 were caused by people ignoring stop signs.

"There have been 29 accidents at that intersection, 25 of which were due to people running a stop sign at McLaurin either going north or south on McLaurin," said Varnell.

He said four accidents were due to a car turning and hitting a vehicle stopped for the stop sign and two were people who stopped and then advanced, not seeing a vehicle on Old Spanish Trail.

"There have been five accidents there since January and all were for running a stop sign," reported Varnell.

He said, "It amazes me that so many accidents are a result of people not stopping."

"I've noticed a site obstruction problem there with a vehicle parked directly in view, and would recommend putting a four-way stop sign at that intersection," said Alderman Curtis Colson.

Alderman Barbara Rappold said, "I guess we could try it, but I don't want to be known as the city of stop signs."

The chief was instructed to ask the resident with the vehicle on the side of the road to please move it to avoid causing a site obstruction.

The chief also agreed to keep up with the number of accidents there to determine if there is still a problem once the vehicle is moved.

LIBRARY BOARD

The board accepted the resignation of Helen Mestayer as the City of Waveland's representative on the Hancock County Library Board and to appoint Dr. Vernon Shockley as representative.

Evelyn Johnson of the Library Board of Trustees spoke on behalf of Shockley, who was unable to attend the meeting.

"Dr. Shockley moved here upon retiring as an administrator from the University of Pennsylvania and has been instrumental in the library's literacy program."

"As an educator, he is much needed on the board," she said.

N.O. gaming delegation visits Magic

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Members of the New Orleans City Council Gaming Committee and Mayor's Economic Development, Planning Commission and Tourism Commission visited Casino Magic Wednesday evening.

The day-long trip for the New Orleans officials along the Mississippi Gulf Coast was to discuss the economic and social impact if the newly established gaming industry in Mississippi.

Casino Magic/Bay St. Louis hosted a dinner for the New Orleans delegation and guests that included Bay St. Louis officials, officers and directors of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Gaming & Tourism Association.

The New Orleans officials included council members Lambert C. Boissiere Jr. and James Singleton; Wayne A. Collier, Mayor's Economic Development executive director; and Earl Bridges, economic director, Strategic Planning Commission.

The visiting delegation placed emphasis on the fact that New Orleans and the Mis-issippi Gulf Coast should promote gaming together in outside areas.

Boissiere said, "We should come together to make a regional effort. Regional promotion will bring a lot of people, and with a lot of people there are a lot of things we can put together."

They indicated the competition for the Mississippi Gulf Coast and New Orleans was Atlantic City and Las Vegas.

Councilman Singleton, whose district will include four boats and the big Louisiana casino, said, "If you get enough people in one area, they will go into all directions."

Marlin Torguson, Casino Magic president, welcomed everyone to the area and talked about how he and the whole corporation fell in love with the place.

Torguson also said, "In our establishment it is very important to offer something else (to visitors), sell them a thing they will remember."

Reflections

On Life

By Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

They said
she said

"Why didn't you tell me you were leaving?"

"Leaving?" I returned. "Who said I was leaving, and where am I going?"

"Oh, that is what people are saying about you, that you will soon be going to another parish. We kept hearing it; so we thought it was true."

"If I'm leaving, it would be very nice if the powers that be informed me of the change," I observed dryly.

"We did not know that you had not been told anything by your superior. We didn't mean any harm. And, by the way, we also heard that you dismissed the church musician."

Frustrated and flabbergasted by now, I held my head as I responded: "I did not dismiss the musician. We are simply trying out some variant music styles."

So they didn't mean any harm. Yet, as a matter of fact, anyone who entertains unchallenged and unsubstantiated rumors wreaks havoc in the minds and hearts of people targeted by such rumors. Trust is the main, often irretrievable casualty.

Then there is a lingering hurt if the rumors involved anything negative or evil. Even after the hurt person has gone out of the way to forgive, trust does not return and the comfortable feeling of being among relatives or friends is gone.

As a matter of record, I am not being transferred; at least, not at this moment. Some changes do take place suddenly, lem we've always had down there, is that the owners and employees want to park right at their front doors. If we can move them to another site to park, we can solve part of the problem."

Fisher said, "I am so interested in a downtown plan because I feel that's the one main thing we've got."

He suggested the city do away with one side of parking, that on the beach side, and have diagonal parking spaces on the other side of the road coming from the bridge.

"You can put so many more cars in diagonally on one side," said Fisher.

Then, he said, start right at the Dock all the way up to the Ulman Avenue pier and put vertical parking.

"Also, you could have some type of boardwalk to tie the pier in with the downtown area," said Fisher.

He also suggested trying to get some parallel parking by the railroad tracks.

Councilman Jim Thriffley suggested utilizing the 15 parking spaces at the old city hall for city employees to park, therefore freeing up the parking by the new city hall. He also suggested a 2 hour parking limit during business hours.

Cuevas suggested businessmen talk to other downtown businessmen to see if they are willing to collectively work on solving the problem.

Fisher asked, "Is there any way the city could spend some money in the downtown area to prepare for the future?"

He said he wants to see sidewalks, pedestrian crossings and handicapped ramps in that area.

Thriffley suggested caution lights at DeMontluzin and Main streets.

Cuevas suggested starting a fund by which downtown businessmen are taxed to finance improvements.

"That would be your commitment for community improvement," she said.

She also suggested getting help from the Gulf Regional Planning Commission (GRPC).

Rutherford asked Scianna, the city's representative to the GRPC, to ask them to come speak with the council on the matter.

No action was taken on the issue.

The city and business owners in the downtown area will continue to work together to solve the parking problem.

The board approved a limited six month permit for Bayou Caddy Casino to put a temporary trailer behind its offices on Highway 90 for more office space.

Mike Cuevas, Bay Council secretary said, "Don't sell your casino as a savior for the business community. Businesses that are about to go under will do so. Good businesses and those who take advantages of the opportunities will continue to do good."

other for my own family. For the first time, I experienced the formidable tension which sometimes obtains between members within the family circle.

Not that I had never seen nor heard it before. On the contrary, such negative stress is a frequent experience throughout every activity and phase of life in or out of the family.

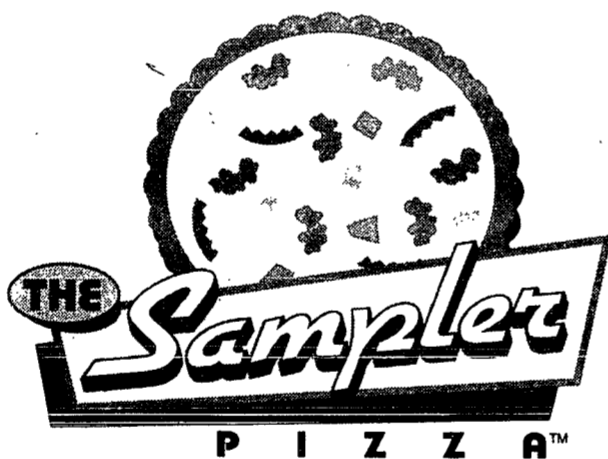

It is a poisonous stream whose wellheads are all too much in evidence: ill will instead of good will, control and manipulation, ridicule and put-downs, tacky gossip and resentments, negative criticism instead of affirmation.

And, of course gossip and rumormongers ride the swirling winds of gossip and rumors, spreading the wild seeds of distrust, suspicion, anxiety and resentment. Their task in life seems to be broadcasting the seeds of bad, not the good news.

Gossips and rumormongers invariably follow the path of the cowardly. Rather than confront those who are objects of their evil talk, they make sure their targets are anyone who is not present and who will not likely trace the trash back to them.

Sometimes, we must be silent. Always, we must be truthful.

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

I am glad to see the Bay St. Louis Council has passed a resolution requesting the State Highway Department to reduce the speed limit on Highway 90.

The number of streets intersecting and businesses along the highway make it necessary to make the request.

Bay St. Louis is also urging the cities of Waveland and Pass Christian to make the request.

Traffic has increased, and apparently will continue to increase as activities increase in our county.

There is a need for several more signal lights on Highway 90, as this will give a break in traffic for persons trying to cross or enter the highway.

I have seen myself sit for what seemed over five minutes to cross the highway on several occasions.

It is not always easy to use a crossing where there is a signal light.

I am told the State Highway Department is doing traffic surveys, but it always seems to take months and months to get them to respond to a need.

One of the arguments the Highway Department has given, is that more traffic accidents occur when a signal light is installed at an intersection.

Still, most believe it is necessary to have traffic signals on heavy-traffic roadways.

In all probability there will be more traffic as our community continues to expand.

Think about what our traffic count will be next year.

There was much talk about town Friday morning concerning the thunderstorm that breezed through Thursday evening.

It has been a long time since I have seen so much lightning.

I know the utility companies had some outages, so they were kept busy making repairs for some time.

Temperatures have been in the high 90's most of this summer, and we sure have had those hot August days with thunderstorms.

We can talk about the weather as much as we like, but we sure cannot do anything about it.

A belated happy birthday goes to Mrs. Rose Hale of Waveland, who celebrated her 100th birthday on July 10.

Mrs. Hale and her family have been in the area for many years, and I am wishing that she will have many more birthdays.

She has now joined an elite group, and many of us would like to know the secret how to live to reach such an age.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Beautiful trees should remain in Diamondhead

Dear Editor:

If it weren't for the trees, there would be no Diamondhead and I would just as soon have stayed in Metairie.

What brought us here from the concrete jungles are rapidly succumbing to the chainsaw blades. Beautiful trees are being sacrificed merely because their shade casts on golf courses, interfere with the growth of small patches of grass, or their roots are cracking concrete side walks around swimming pools.

It only takes a day to repair a sidewalk. It takes a 100 years for some of these trees to become as beautiful as they are.

There was once such a tree behind my condo. The highest part of its trunk arched about 25 feet into the sky and its top almost touched the ground about 50 feet from its base. I bought my condo because of that rainbow-shaped tree.

I am convinced that trees have feelings after what happened yesterday. Two workmen were standing at the base of my rainbow tree with chainsaw ready, discussing the best way to dispatch it. Rather than suffer the excruciating pain of the whirling cold steel chain saw blade, my beloved tree committed suicide.

The experts say it collapsed from its own weight. I say it wanted to die with dignity. My neighbor quipped that it died from a broken heart. I was in no mood to laugh.

Sincerely yours,
Nicholas T. Haas Jr.

We need limits on casinos, population, development

Dear Editor,

We humans, supposedly the intelligent beings, simply refuse to understand and accept the real reason for virtually all of today's critical problems and disasters.

Our landfill shortage, pollution, environmental problems, disappearance of clean drinking water, crime, the lack of prison space, urban sprawl, joblessness, homelessness, poor and expensive health care, the economic troubles that all our cities, states and federal government have, crumbling infrastructure, disappearance of seafood, wildlife, birds, waterfowl, ancient forests, global warming, ozone layer disappearance, and more recently, the flooding in our Midwest, and almost any other trouble our society is encountering are all caused by our breaking of one basic law of nature.

It is the law of limitations and excesses. In one word, overpopulation — too many people on this small, fragile planet we all must share.

We build levees and dams to control, constrict and restrict the water flow in our nation's largest rivers so they don't overflow their banks and flood what once were precious marshes and wetlands. They acted as natural sponges to absorb the excess water.

This flooding, by the way, renews and adds rich natural nutrients to this land, eliminating the need for artificial fertilizers.

We then farm them to provide food for our ever-expanding world population, or pave them over in the name of greedy development. Once this is done, wetlands are lost forever.

Once water is confined in this way, to only a narrow channel it must break out somewhere else along its course when heavy rainfall occurs.

Asphalt, concrete, shopping center and casino parking lots, more airports, urban development, and our ever expanding cities provide no means for this water to soak in and dissipate. Could the global warming many scientists warn us of, because of air pollution, be the cause of our changing weather patterns? If human population were reversed to what it was in 1940, with our present technology, the world would be a virtual utopia today, and almost all our problems would disappear.

It would be a very simple thing to achieve if we were smart enough to limit family size to only two children instead of giving tax relief and welfare income to families of unlimited size.

Eventually we will have to limit family size, but by then we will have permanently lost most of our wildlife, natural beauty, resources and food sources, bringing about worldwide famine.

The disappearance and filling in of wetlands and marshes here on the Gulf Coast has a different effect on us because we are not much affected by river flooding. When the casino millionaires fill in our wetlands for their parking lots, hotels, theme parks, golf courses, etc., so they may make still more millions, they destroy forever the wildlife habitat, shrimp, fish, migratory waterfowl, bird and wildlife breeding and feeding grounds, run-off pollution filtration, and the very basic food chain source for all the animals and birds in our area.

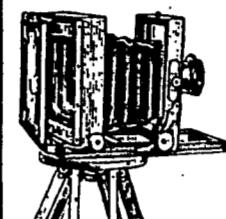

If we continue to allow more and more casinos into our area we might as well give up our seafood industry and eating seafood, because there won't be any. Are we willing to leave a legacy of glitzy casinos and gambling to our future generations, or would we rather leave them with our present laid-back, easy way of life and the bountiful, God-given natural beauty and wildlife our wetlands provide?

The choice is ours, but it must be made now, before it is too late and they have all disappeared. No more casinos! Enough is too much already!

Naturally,

The Planning and Zoning Commission will meet Tuesday, Aug. 9 to review a new up-to-date zoning map of Bay St. Louis that will be presented by architect Jules Lagarde. C.C. McDonald, commission chairman said if there is nothing wrong with the new zoning map, and it is approved, this will clear the deck to set a date for a public hearing on the beach front ordinance. The beach front ordinance prohibits commercial construction on the beach front except for the property owned by the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, the American Legion, and the Central Business District, which includes the area from the old Merchants Insurance Building to the north side of the Maurice Colly property. The one exception is Pete Fountain's property which is already zoned highway commercial C-3, said McDonald.

The free concert is scheduled from 6 until 8 p.m. and will feature additional entertainment by children of the Coast and a marching and dance club under the direction of Marion Dedeaux. Sponsored by the City of Pass Christian, the concert will feature the 60-member Bay Area Chorale, made up of musicians from throughout the Coast, performing traditional American songs as well as lesser known works by American composers.

The chorus, which is directed by Joy Penny Mehrtens, debuted last March with performances of Handel's "Messiah" in Diamondhead, followed by an Americana Concert in Bay St. Louis in June.

The group's next presentation will be a Christmas Concert in Diamondhead in December.

Performing as solo artists will be Karen Cornell Raines of Long Beach, Judith D'Angelo of Pass Christian, Harry Evers of Pass Christian and George Watkins of Diamondhead.

Raines, music director at Grace Lutheran Church in Long Beach, holds a master's degree in vocal performance from the University of West Virginia and has performed with the Keesler Chorale and Southern Voices as a soprano soloist. She teaches voice and piano privately.

D'Angelo, also a piano and voice teacher, is music director at St. Paul Catholic Church in Pass Christian. She has performed as a soloist and chorister with the Keesler Chorale and Southern Voices, as well as in dinner theater productions in George Watkins is a member of the Diamondhead Community Church Choir whose previous experience includes stints with both the Chorus Pro Musica in Boston, often performing with the Boston Symphony and the Downer's Grove Oratorio Society in Illinois.

With a master's degree in organ, Joy Penny Mehrtens has taught music both in New Orleans and in a number of Coast schools, from junior high school to college level. She also has taught organ, piano and voice and has served as organist and choir director at a number of churches in the New Orleans area and on the Coast.

VA distributes World War I medals

The nation is mustering its World War I veterans one last time to honor them with a special medal commemorating their wartime service on the 75th anniversary of the armistice that ended "the war to end all wars."

The medal is intended for every living U.S. veteran of World War I, estimated by the Department of Veterans Affairs

(VA) at between 30,000 and 40,000. There are about 450 WWI veterans living in Mississippi.

Designed by the U.S. Army Institute of Heraldry, the medal is sponsored by the Chicago-based McCormick Tribune Foundation and is being presented to veterans under the auspices of the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs.

To receive the medal, Mississippi World War I veterans or their representatives can obtain an application from the Jackson VA Regional Office or call toll free 1-800-827-1000.

A special "Certificate of Appreciation" signed by the Department of Veterans Affairs Secretary Jesse Brown is available to survivors of WWI veterans in memory of the veteran's distinguished service and personal sacrifice.

Survivors of WWI veterans may call the Jackson VA Regional Office at 1-800-827-1000 for more information and assistance.

By Donald Mauffray

Montgomery GI Bill benefits explained

Q. My spouse and I are veterans and plan to take advantage of the education assistance benefits available to us under the Montgomery GI Bill-Active Duty to get college degrees. May we claim each other as dependents?

A. Only those veterans who had remaining entitlement under the Vietnam Era GI Bill on December 31, 1989 may receive additional educational assistance under the Montgomery GI Bill-Active Duty. If this applies to both you and your spouse, be sure a certified copy of your marriage license is in each of your files.

Q. education benefits. Is that true?

A. Yes. It is VA policy to reconcile all outstanding debts to the U.S. Government prior to approving a home loan application.

Q. I live in a rural area and cannot visit a VA office for benefit information. What can I do?

A. Benefit information can be obtained by calling the toll-free number for all VA regional offices. The number is 1-800-827-1000. Information can also be obtained by mail to VAO, 100 W. Capitol St., Jackson, MS 39269.

Q. Will my VA insurance dividends be affected if I get a loan on the policy?

A. No. Earned dividends are not affected by a loan on the policy. However, you may use your dividends to reduce the balance of your loan. For more information on this and other dividend options, call 1-800-422-8079.

Q. Would I be able to reserve space in the national cemetery of my choice?

A. No. Gravesites in national cemeteries cannot be reserved. Funeral directors or others making burial arrangements must apply at the time of death.

Q. My husband has been rated 100 percent for a service-connected disability and has been receiving compensation for 15 years. If he dies from other than service-connected causes, will I be entitled to Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC)?

A. The widow of a veteran who had a 100-percent service-connected disability for at least ten years immediately prior to his death is entitled to DIC benefits, regardless of the cause of death provided that they were married one or more years or that a child was born of the marriage. If the 100-percent rating is not in effect at the time of the veteran's death, eligibility is not established.

Q. I am a veteran who is receiving a VA nonservice-connected pension. My only other monthly income is Social Security, but I also have a savings plan that pays quarterly interest. Do I need to report the interest to VA as income?

A. Yes. VA pension benefits are based in part on your income from all sources. Interest earned from savings is considered income in determining your continued eligibility for benefits and should be reported to the VA on your annual eligibility verification (EVR) report.

Jobs bill to aid new vets

Recent veterans whose military skills don't readily transfer to civilian jobs may now get help from a new federal training program that will pay certain costs to participating private employers, said Larry D. Woodard, director of the VA Regional Office in Jackson.

The Service Members Occupational Conversion and Training Act (SMOCTA) is aimed at veterans discharged after Aug. 1, 1990, who have had difficulty getting steady work.

Jointly implemented by the departments of Defense, Labor and Veterans Affairs, the program will pay wage reimbursements up to $10,000 to employers who establish approved training and offer prospects of long-term employment. Reimbursement of up to $12,000 is available for training certain disabled veterans.

"This program not only provides jobs for veterans, but it also provides an excellent opportunity for employers, including small businesses, to add employees to their workforce and get help in offsetting training costs at the same time," said Woodard.

VA will perform program administration activities along with the Department of Labor. VA will also provide educational, vocational and readjustment counseling to qualified veterans who are interested in these services.

The Department of Defense is funding $75 million earmarked for employers who provide jobs to qualified veterans.

To qualify, a veteran must have been honorably discharged from active military service after Aug. 1, 1990, and served for more than 90 days, unless discharged earlier because of a service-connected disability.

Eligibility is then based on either the Defense Department's determination that the veteran's primary or secondary military occupational specialty is not readily transferable to the civilian workforce, or the veteran is unemployed at the time of application and for at least 8 of the 15 weeks immediately preceding application. Eligibility also is extended to veterans discharged after Aug. 1, 1990, who have a VA service-connected disability rating of 30 percent or more.

Employers can apply to participate in SMOCTA by contacting the nearest Mississippi Jobs Service office for details, applications and assistance in establishing approved training programs.

Veterans also may contact their nearest Mississippi Job Service office for assistance, or call the Jackson VA Regional Office toll-free at 1-800-827-1000.

Environmental data offered by GE Plastics

Special to the Echo
For the third consecutive year, GE Plastics in the Port Bienville Industrial Park is conducting an outreach program to ensure local awareness of its environmental stewardship in complying with the standards of the Superfund Amendment Reauthorization Act (SARA).
While reporting emissions to the federal and state government each year is required under SARA Title II Act, GE historically has voluntarily reported this same information to the local community. This information was shared in a series of meetings with community leaders, members of the local emergency planning commission, media, community residents and emergency response teams on Aug. 17, 18 and 20.
The comprehensive SARA Title III legislation incorporates approximately 300 chemical substances. Most U.S. industries must report levels of chemical emissions and waste to the Federal Environmental Protection Agency and similar state agencies each July for the preceding year.
The GE Plastics facility in the Port Bienville Industrial Park uses only five of those materials in sufficient quantities to be reportable.
As in past years, acrylonitrile and styrene, continue to be the largest reportable materials with approximately 150 million pounds used in production in 1992. Total 1992 acrylonitrile and styrene on-site air emissions were 13,600 pounds which is a 93% reduction since the first SARA Title III report of 1987 on-site emissions.

Acrylonitrile is a petrochemical product commonly used in industry in the manufacture of acrylic fibers, plastics, coatings and adhesives. Styrene is commonly used in the manufacture of plastic resins.
The facility processes styrene and acrylonitrile to produce a plastic resin used in the manufacture of ABS engineering thermoplastics. Common applications include interior automotive components, refrigerator liners, telephone casings and computer housings.
Other milestones reveal reductions in off-site incineration due to resource recovery programs. While production increased in 1992, total emissions and waste generation has been reduced by 17 percent.
Stephen A. Grover, plant manager, reports, "Our goal has been to recover and recycle the material, minimizing emissions for the protection of the environment. This also reduces our operating costs which improves our competitive position in the marketplace.

Grover also reviewed information on materials of lesser volume during the meetings.

Gateway Body and Paint celebrates 10th year

Gateway Body and Paint, which specializes in collision repair of both foreign and domestic vehicles, will celebrate its 10th year at the present location, 1002 Old Spanish Trail, on September 1.

The shop was located in Bay St. Louis for two and a half years prior to moving to the Waveland location.

Owners Wes and Kathy Ziegler said business has been doing great.

"Between all the rain and the casino traffic, we've been really busy the past six months," said Wes Ziegler.

Kathy Ziegler said, "We have a steady clientele, but also have a lot of new customers coming into the shop."

The shop, managed by Eric

Kinard, handles paint jobs with its spray booth and has its own Dupont Cronar paint mixing system. They also replace headliners and vinyl tops in addition to offering wash, wax and interior cleaning services.

For frame repairs, they use a Chief EZ Liner frame machine to ensure accuracy.

Kathy Ziegler said they send their workers to training courses to keep them updated in trends in technology.

She said, "It's very important to keep our employees updated because things are constantly changing."

Wes Ziegler said, "We're also on a computerized estimating system which is a plus for our customers so they know what they're getting for their money."

Katharine & Co. for Hair not only does adult hair cuts, but child cuts too. They also do perms, color and highlights.

Cash Back

Delchamps offers cash to schools for collection of register receipts

Delchamps Inc. announced the beginning of the third year of its 'Cash Back for Schools' program, which allows participating schools to collect Delchamps receipts issued on or after Aug. 18 and redeem them for 1% in cash back to use for the school.

According to Delchamps officials, Cash Back for Schools is an easy and effective means of fund-raising for schools. There is no limit on the amount of money each participating school can raise, and the money can be used in any way the school decides.

During the past two years of Cash Back, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been redeemed by schools to help meet many vital educational needs of children.

Here's how Cash Back for Schools works:

Beginning Aug. 18 and running through Jan. 1, schools can collect Delchamps receipts. Once a school has collected at least $50,000 in receipts, they can turn them in to their Delchamps store manager and a check for 1% of the total receipts collected will be issued back to the school.

Beginning Aug. 18, all Delchamps receipts will be a distinctive green color to make collection even easier. At the end of the program any amount of receipts may be redeemed for cash.

Information detailing the Cash Back for Schools program is being mailed to private, public and parochial school principals across Delchamps operating areas.

Any school that does not receive this information should contact Delchamps corporate office at (205) 433-0431.

Ship Island fares reduced on Parks Day

Gulf Islands National Seashore, both Florida and Mississippi district, will celebrate National Parks Day Wednesday, Aug. 25.

Writing project

Frances B. Weiler, a teacher at Hancock High School, participated in the South Mississippi Writing Project this summer at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg. The South Mississippi Writing Project brings together teachers from across southern Mississippi to develop implementation strategies for writing in all subject areas in the curriculum, kindergarten through college level.

The Mississippi District concessioner, Ship Island Excursions, will observe National Parks Day by offering reduced fares to Ship Island for the day.

Adults may go to the island for $10 instead of the regular $12 fare. Children (ages 3-10) will be admitted for $5 instead of the regular $6 fare.

Local residents are encouraged to be "a tourist for a day" and enjoy one of the area's most popular attractions. Boats depart from Gulfport Yacht Harbor at 9 a.m. and noon.

Return boats leave Ship Island at 2:30 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. and passengers may return on either one, arriving back on the mainland at 3:45 p.m. or 6:45 p.m.

Bay High Tigers ready for challenge of new division

BY LIZ HAAS

Offensive coordinator Ed Reed said the Bay High Tigers are prepared to enter the season under the leadership of coach Rocky Gaudin.

"We have been moved to the Defensive coordinator is Walt Esslinger.

The defense will return senior Jeff Hopgood, 99, a three-year starter as defensive end.

"Jeff has had a great pre-season and is on all the pre-

Shabazz, 32, and Reggie Williams, 41.

The defensive front includes sophomore J.T. Tillmann, 52, a noseguard, and number 44 Raleigh Murphy, a senior linebacker.

Two-year starter full back Leroy Hawkins, 31, will return to the offense in his junior year.

Senior veteran forces on the offensive line returning are tackle Keith Corr, 76, and Benny Murphy, 67, a two-year starter.

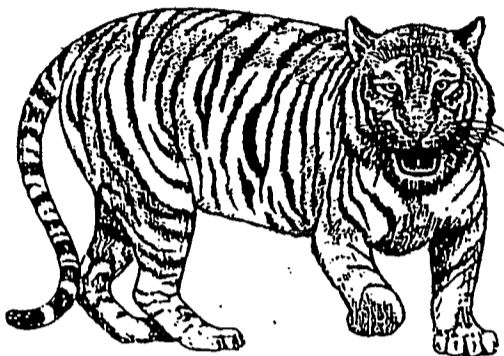

Also on the offense are Donnie Ray, 55, as center, and Jeremany Turcotte, 50, a tenth grade guard.

Reed said, "We have a good crop of receivers like Cedric Claiborne, 25, and Xavier Lewis, 30, who were both starters last year and have great speed and good hands."

"We have great running backs, a great running team which opens up a good passing game. We will be passing more than in the past," he said.

Reed said the pre-season has been really productive and the many veteran players have helped pull the younger ones through practice.

"We're looking for a good year," he said.

4A division this year, a tougher classification, because our school is getting bigger," he said.

"There is a good and bad side of moving up in the conference. If you want to be the best, you have to play the best and that's what we want, but we were such a dominant power in the 3A division," said Reed.

Three-year starter quarterback Sam Shepard, 11, will be returning as a hot gun.

Shepard earned an all district honorable mention last year.

"He did a great job last year in taking the team to the playoffs and we're counting on him this year to be the gas that runs the engine," said Reed.

"Our offensive team is our strongest team because it is returning eight good quality starters who know what's going on and what to expect," said Gaudin.

The defensive team is returning three starters.

"Even though we only have three starters on the defensive team, we do have about six guys who are younger but had a lot of playing time last year, so they do have experience," he said.

The Hancock Hawks

Hancock Hawks

Promising season ahead: Favre

BY DAVID A. FARRELL

Hancock High Hawks Head Coach Irvin Favre is in his 23rd year at Hancock, and he's seen a lot of seasoned players come and go, including his own son, Brett, who now quarterbacks the Green Bay Packers.

So it is with a seasoned, experienced eye that he looks over his ball club, and when he speaks, you know he knows what he's talking about.

Said Favre, "The kids have been working hard. We'll have our good days, and our bad days. But if we play during the regular season as well as we played against Bay High during the spring game, then we will be competitive enough to have a chance to win."

Hancock is a 4A school in District 8.

The Hawks will kick off the fall season against Biloxi on Friday night at 7:30 in Biloxi.

The Hawks face a tough schedule. District 8 in the 4A classification this year is composed of some good ball clubs, said Favre. All have a returning core of starters who will make the competition tight.

Favre will have a seasoned quarterback calling signals, Scotty Davis, a senior, who had a solid year as a junior.

He will also have one of the best running backs in District 8 in Lance Wedgeworth, also a senior at 6-1, 170 lbs.

Wedgeworth also plays safety on defense.

Wedgeworth has in the past been able to make the big play for the Hawks, and will continue to do so, says Favre. "He's good," added Favre.

Returning on the offensive line will be Mitch Havard and Dusty Anderson at guards and at tight end Brian Lindsey.

On the defensive line will be newcomers Miguel Smith at tackle and Kane McCraney at end. "These two have got to come through for us," says Favre.

At linebacker is Lindsey and Bradley Perniciaro.

The Hawks will continue to operate out of the wing-t and on defense from a split four. The Hawks were 4-6 last year.

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws

Rocks are stronger

Lyons' SSC team improved

BY DAVID A. FARRELL

St. Stanislaus Head Coach Ken Lyons said the Rock-A-Chaws should be improved this year, but he adds, "So is everyone else we'll play."

Lyons is in his seventh year at St. Stanislaus.

The Rock-A-Chaws opens the season Friday night at 7:30 at home against Northeast Jones. St. Stanislaus is classified a 4A school and plays in District 8.

And the Rocks have a tough schedule. There will be no rest or easy games. All will be important and tough, said Lyons.

He pointed to hometown rivals Bay High and Hancock High, Pearl River Central, D'Iberville and others on the tough schedule.

He singled out St. Martin as one of "the bigger and better teams" the squad will face this year.

Then there's Long Beach, East Central, Pass Christian.

"It's like the Southeastern Conference. Everybody's good this year. It'll be a rat race," says Lyons.

A new team on the schedule this year will be Biloxi.

"There's no doubt our schedule is a tough one, but we've been working hard and we'll be ready to do our best," added Lyons.

Lyons said returning quarterback Nathan Middleton "should have a good year. The 5-10, 165-pound junior already has two years experience under his belt as a freshman and sophomore.

At running back, Lyons will be counting on Jeep Mestayer, who started last year as a sophomore.

"We had a young ball club last year, so we should be much stronger this year," added Lyons.

Also being counted on are returning offensive line starters at tackle Matt Wilty and Jacob Alford, at guard Brian Matherne and at center Russ Graham.

On defence returning starters include linebackers Brooks Quinlan and Rocky Sapia and at defensive end brothers Lee and Leo Seal.

Also at linebacker is Kenny Monti.

Moving up and helping will be Allen Schaefer at linebacker, Charles Oliver at corner back and Imari Esters and Mike Ford will be helping with linebacker chores, too.

Says defensive coordinator Larry Ramsey, "We are looking good on defense, but we really won't know until the team hits the playing field."

But Ramsey said team members have been working real hard and have a good attitude.

USM football offers game day fun

In addition to exciting football action, the University of Southern Mississippi game-day experience for the Golden Eagles' four 1993 home games promises fans a full day of University and athletic related fun.

Some of the "fun" activities were available last season and will be expanded for '93. Those include the cannon that fires to signal the arrival on the field of the Golden Eagles and after each USM score, the corporate tent area, Eagle Fun Land and the human tunnel of support.

Most pregame activities start at 2 p.m., and the tunnel of support at 3 p.m.

In addition, the Pride marching band will again provide pregame roving bands around the campus and will again march through the campus and into the stadium, and three different bands will perform in the main tailgating area, the corporate tent area and the student tailgating area.

The student tailgating area has been moved closer to the stadium and will provide students a better opportunity to enjoy the pregame tailgating that has become so popular in recent years.

Coach Jeff Bower's team opens the season Sept. 4 against one of the bigger name football teams in the country, the Pitt Panthers. In addition, the Eagles will host Northeast Louisiana (Sept. 18), East Carolina (Oct. 23) and Tulane for homecoming (Nov. 6). All home games will start at 5 p.m.

players returning who understand our system."

At quarterback is Bobby Thaxton of Carriere. Thaxton, a highly touted signal caller who signed with University of Southern Mississippi last year, transferred to PRC before the season began.

Thaxton played a backup role last year, but he has the job nailed down here in 1993.

The PRC defense has no starters returning, however, there are nine players who did letter for the Wildcats.

"We may be a little larger up front and have more quickness," said Mike Humphreys, defensive coordinator. "We have a lot of work to do before the first game."

Wildcats ranked No. 10 in nation

Pearl River Community College's football Wildcats are ranked number 10 in the nation in the National Junior/Community College Athletic Association pre-season poll.

Starting with 85 hopefuls on Thursday, that number had dwindled to 71 by Monday morning's practice. Willie Coats, who is starting his third year as head coach, said 55 will be certified before the first game on Sept. 2 against Northeast.

Last year, while posting a 10-0 regular season, the Wildcats averaged 30.3 points per game, while allowing an average of 13. Both stats were good enough for third place in the state.

PRC, however, led the state in rushing offense with a 276.6 yard average. In total offense the Wildcats placed second, behind national champion Northwest with a 394.7 yards per game average.

Offensively the Wildcats have 11 players returning, including fullback Chris Ryan, the state's leading rusher with 1,243 yards as a freshman.

Lettermen returning include wide receiver Larry Myers of Hattiesburg and Lavelle McDonald of Poplarville. Wingbacks with experience include Shedrick Rogers of Lumberton, Valdez Gaddis of Sumrall and Chey Stringer of Columbia.

Several offensive linemen with playing time will be back, as well as punter Dennis Mitchell of Picayune and place kicker Brandon Murray of Carriere.

Cooling off

Pearl River Community College starting offensive guard David King of Hancock County took advantage of a water break during sweltering two-a-day workouts in Poplarville Monday. Eighty-five reported to camp on Thursday, with 71 hopefuls remaining Monday. The squad will have to be cut to 55 by the time the Wildcats take on the Northeast Tigers in Booneville Sept. 2.
